

Coaching Peace Education in Practice online training course

1-6 December 2020

The Association of Service Civil International (SCI) is opening applications for a Coaching Peace education in Practice online training course, the third activity of SCI's Work Plan for 2020: 'Peace in Practice: supporting young people to become peace envoys', that aims to strengthen the capacity of young people to connect peace with day-to-day life and actions and act for change.

We are looking for participants who are interested in the topics of coaching and peace education! The online training course is open for young people, youth workers and volunteers from across partner organisations or SCI supporters in Europe, interested in coaching as a way to support young people act for peace in practice.

In this online coaching training course you will:

- Enhance your capacity to apply peace values and methods in your life and work.
- Improve your coaching skills by learning and practicing coaching tools and techniques.
- Understand more and learn tips and tricks about online facilitation.
- Explore and reflect upon the new Peace Education in Practice online course.

Team of trainers

Natalie Jivkova has been inspired by and passionate about non-formal learning since her first experience more than 20 years ago. As a trainer and facilitator, she supports learning processes and personal development of youngsters and adults since 2002, using coaching as one of the powerful ways. She followed several training courses on coaching and facilitation of online learning in the past. Natalie has been involved in SCI since 2002 and has co-developed the "Peace Education in Practice" course.

Thomas Schallhart is involved in SCI for almost ten years and is a trainer in peace-, global-, and queer/gender education. He loves using non-formal education both in online and offline spaces. Thomas has been a coach for hundreds of young people and peace activists in starting up workshops, editing Wikipedia or learning processes around peace. He has also worked as a campaign strategist for a German animal rights organisation and is currently founding a queer NGO in Berlin. He has co-developed the "Peace Education in Practice" course.

Participant Profile

The event is open for participants from the member states of the Council of Europe.

<https://www.coe.int/en/web/about-us/our-member-states>

Participants should have an interest in peace education and coaching. We are particularly looking for participants motivated to explore the newly developed online course on peace education in the preparation phase of the training course (October/November), and to facilitate learners of the online course Peace Education in Practice once it is launched in 2021.

Participants must

- Be 18 years or older
- Be resident in a Council of Europe Member State or partnering countries
- Be involved in a local SCI branch or partner organization
- Be able to communicate and work in English
- Have access to a device (PC/ tablet/ smartphone) with a good access to internet, camera and headphones
- Attend and participate for the whole duration of the online training course

Programme

The training has a duration of 6 days. It combines individual and group sessions - there are mostly individual preparation sessions in the morning, 2 group sessions in the afternoon and informal activities in the evening. The times are indicated in Central European Time.

	1.12. Tuesday	2.12. Wednesday	3.12. Thursday	4.12. Friday	5.12. Saturday	6.12. Sunday
Morning 11:00-12:30 CET Facilitators will be online and available for the participants	Pre-task: Getting to know	Individual/sma ll group task: Explore Peace in Practice online course	Individual/sma ll group task: Peace education	Individual/sma ll group task: My path as a coach	Coaching techniques II (Non-violent communication)
Afternoon 14:00-15:30 CET	Opening and Getting to know, Expectation	Feedback and tips for improvements	Online facilitation	Understanding different roles - coach, mentor,	Coaching Practice	Future planning, Evaluation

	s			trainer, facilitator
16:00-17:30 CET	Group Agreement, Project, program, technicalities EYF, "Peace in Practice" online course short intro + task for tomorrow morning	Peace and peace education	Peace education tools & resources	Introduction to Coaching and coaching techniques I (Active listening and ROSA model)	Coach cafe: cases from coaching practice	Closure & Celebration
Evening 18:30 - ? CET	Getting to know each other further	Participants organise informal evening on their own	Participants organise informal evening on their own	Participants organise informal evening on their own	International volunteer day

This online training course is organised by SCI's International Secretariat, with a kind financial support from Council of Europe's European Youth Foundation.

Applications

If you would like to join this online training course, please apply using the following link before

20th October 2020: Online Application Form

The results of the applications will be communicated by the end of October.

In case of any questions, feel free to contact Hannah at volunteer@sci.ngo

We look forward to hearing from you! SCI